

» Attorney Recruiting - Openings

Candidates should possess superior academic credentials from nationally recognized law schools, as well as demonstrably superior legal writing skills. Successful attorneys can look forward to a rewarding practice where enthusiasm, exceptional client service, hard work, community involvement and legal acumen truly are appreciated. The firm offers a collegial, efficient, midsize firm platform with exceptional lawyers, sophisticated clients, and compensation competitive with larger firms.

Currently, we have the following openings:

Investment Funds & Advisers Group Associate

Shartsis Friese LLP is seeking an associate attorney with approximately two to three years of experience in investment management law and/or corporate transactional and securities law experience for a partnership track position in our top-rated and nationally prominent Investment Funds & Advisers Group. The firm offers a collegial, efficient, midsize firm platform with exceptional lawyers, sophisticated clients, and compensation competitive with larger firms. The Investment Funds & Advisers Group works with hundreds of private funds and investment advisers in a cutting edge practice. Prior private fund or Investment Advisers Act experience is a plus, but not a prerequisite. Significant securities law experience is required.

Real Estate Associate

Shartsis Friese LLP is seeking an Associate attorney with three to five years' in counseling clients in the structuring, negotiation, and documentation of a broad range of real estate and finance transactions, as well as in commercial leasing activity. Successful candidates will have demonstrably superior legal writing skills and should possess exceptional academic credentials from nationally recognized law schools. The firm offers a collegial, efficient, midsize firm platform with exceptional lawyers, sophisticated clients, and compensation competitive with larger firms. This is a great opportunity for the right person as she/he will be joining a growing and active practice.

Please submit candidate materials, including a resume and law school transcript, to Jason White at jwhite@sflaw.com with a copy to Melissa Artola at martola@sflaw.com.