Our Corporate Group represents public and private entities, as well as high net-worth individuals, in all aspects of their transactional and governance needs. We have multi-disciplinary teams with experienced lawyers to meet our clients' demanding specific requirements.

The Corporate Group represents clients in numerous industries, with particular strength in the technology, healthcare, life science, software, manufacturing, environmental solutions and waste management industries. We serve our clients in a full range of domestic and cross-border matters, including mergers and acquisitions; corporate and corporate governance; entity formation; securities; private placements and debt financings; joint ventures; and product development, licensing, supply and distribution arrangements.

Shartsis Frieese provides clients the resources, support and sophistication of a large firm, with the personal service and agility of a small firm. We provide experienced, senior-level support for our clients with a small, efficient team of dedicated lawyers.
