Our healthcare clients benefit from our experience in complex corporate, real estate and technology matters and they value our expertise, our resources and, above all, our ability to provide legal services of the highest professional caliber while retaining personal relationships with each of them.

We understand the markets within which our healthcare clients operate, and we have developed a strong healthcare transactional practice by delivering the highest caliber of work while being able to respond to our clients' need to complete transactions in a timely and cost-effective manner. The members of our healthcare practice have been involved in scores of significant healthcare transactions totaling many billions of dollars. We assist our healthcare in a wide range of matters, including:

- Corporate and Securities
- Acquisitions and Dispositions
- Financing, Joint Venture and Investment Transactions
- Real Estate Development and Leasing
- Licensing, Regulatory and Compliance
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution

Our healthcare clients include hospital systems, physician and management groups and behavioral healthcare providers, as well as life sciences and healthcare technology companies throughout California, across the country and internationally.

We provide a wide range of representation to our healthcare clients, including assisting them in public and private securities offerings, acquisition, disposition, financing, joint venture, investment and strategic transactions, as well as the full range of real estate development, construction, leasing, management and disposition transactions. We advise and counsel our healthcare clients in significant strategic and operational matters, as well as in the resolution of licensing, regulatory and compliance matters, including patient privacy matters, and serve as outside general counsel to a number of healthcare companies.

In addition, as the need arises in complex transactions, our healthcare group calls upon the expertise of the firm's tax and intellectual property lawyers to provide guidance on transaction planning and structure and works closely with the firm's Litigation Group in cost-effectively resolving business disputes ranging from contract enforcement and shareholder disputes to bet-the-company lawsuits.
