

---

We secure copyright registrations for a broad array of clients across all industries. We also provide comprehensive copyright counseling on ownership and licensing issues. Our copyright practice encompasses computer software, applications and digital rights, as well as non-technical subject matter areas such as books, photographs, movies, entertainment, illustrations and other published works and works of art. We counsel clients regarding the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), fair use, secondary liability, open source, and other emerging issues related to Internet and e-commerce, social media and computer software and applications.