Corporate

Employing a multidisciplinary approach, our corporate lawyers serve as experienced guides for helping clients negotiate the business landscape across diverse market sectors.

Our Corporate Group uses the law to help clients reach the goals for their business. Solution-oriented and responsive to client needs, our Corporate Group represents public and private entities, entrepreneurs, high net-worth individuals, and family offices in all aspects of their transactional and governance needs. These needs range from support of day-to-day operations to mergers and acquisitions (M&A), financings, organizational matters, investments, commercial and technology contracts, licensing arrangements, and more. We have multidisciplinary teams with experienced lawyers to meet our clients' demanding specific requirements.

Working with clients at all stages of growth, from business formation to succession planning and everything in between, we focus on developing creative solutions and practical advice that helps clients move their businesses forward. Our Corporate Group represents clients in numerous industries, with particular strength in the technology, consumer products, healthcare, life science, software, manufacturing, environmental solutions and waste management industries.

Experienced with multimillion dollar deals and sophisticated business strategies, our Corporate Group provides clients with the resources, support and scalability of a large firm and the personal service and agility of a small firm. We generally staff deal teams leanly, pairing an experienced partner with one associate and drawing on a deep bench of experienced corporate attorneys to staff larger deal teams for more
