

Private Equity

Private equity transactions demand speed, precision and a nuanced understanding of both deal mechanics and portfolio operations. Shartsis Frieese provides sophisticated, partner-led counsel, combining Big Law-caliber experience with the efficiency and responsiveness of a boutique firm.

Working with fund sponsors, co-investors and portfolio companies, our attorneys bring deep experience gained from leading private equity practices at top-tier firms, giving clients insight into market trends, deal structures and investor perspectives. We translate that expertise into pragmatic guidance for every stage of an investment, from fund formation and acquisition strategy to leveraged buyouts, add-on acquisitions, and exit planning.

Representative Matters

- Fermented Food Holdings, LLC – Represented the portfolio company of a private investment firm in multiple acquisitions of leading natural food brands, including Bubbies, Wildbrine and several prominent sauerkraut product lines, expanding its footprint in the premium fermented foods sector.
