

---

San Francisco (March 29, 2018): Shartsis Friese LLP is pleased to announce that David H. Kremer was admitted to the prestigious American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL), the premier professional organization of United States real estate lawyers. Admission is by invitation only after a rigorous screening process. ACREL's distinguished, nationally-known lawyers demonstrate outstanding legal ability, experience and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of real estate law. Mr. Kremer was one of only three California lawyers elected to the ACREL this year.

“David’s election to the American College of Real Estate Lawyers is a recognition of his well-deserved reputation as a business-savvy real estate lawyer.” said Arthur J. Shartsis, co-founder of the firm. “We congratulate him on achieving this professional milestone.”

Mr. Kremer is the co-leader of the Shartsis Friese’s nationally renowned real estate department. His practice includes all aspects of complex commercial real estate transactions, including acquisition, development, financing, leasing and disposition of commercial properties. Mr. Kremer has particular expertise in development projects involving corporate facilities and headquarters complexes, including the various financing techniques employed in such projects.

Shartsis Friese partners Peter Aitelli and Alan Robin also are members of ACREL. Mr. Aitelli is on the College's Board of Governors and currently serves as its Treasurer.

Founded in San Francisco in 1975, Shartsis Friese LLP has over 60 lawyers. The firm has extensive trial and business litigation experience, including securities enforcement defense, and a complex transactional practice focused on investment advisers, hedge funds, mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, securities, family wealth planning, tax, venture capital, intellectual property and real estate.