Focused on providing efficient and targeted solutions to clients' disputes, Kajsa Minor is a results-driven trial attorney with extensive experience representing both businesses and individuals in arbitration and court trials.

With more than 18 years of experience representing clients in complex business disputes, Kajsa handles all phases of litigation in state and federal courts, as well as in private arbitration forums. She has extensive trial experience, having handled hundreds of arbitrations through hearing.

With a practice that spans a wide range of commercial litigation matters, Kajsa advocates on behalf of clients in partnership and shareholder disputes, breach of contract claims, trade secret misappropriation, insurance coverage issues, false advertising and unfair competition claims and intellectual property rights disputes. She has a strong track record of success in defending consumer claims brought before the American Arbitration Association (AAA), including mass arbitration matters.

Kajsa has represented a diverse array of clients, including California state agencies, publicly traded Fortune 500 companies, small businesses, startups and individuals. Her practical and strategic approach and deep litigation experience make her a trusted advisor and effective advocate in high-stakes commercial conflicts.
