as outside general counsel, offering responsive and pragmatic guidance that supports informed decision-making in fast-moving environments. His balanced understanding of both company and investor considerations allows him to facilitate transactions that advance clients' long-term objectives.

Family Offices & Private Investors

Rob advises family offices and high-net-worth individuals on the structuring, evaluation and execution of private investments across asset classes. His experience leading a single-family office provides him with a deep understanding of the practical demands associated with long-term capital deployment. He also collaborates closely with clients and their advisory teams to design and implement family office structures that ensure investment strategies align with broader wealth-preservation, governance and legacy planning goals.

A Distinctive Blend of Legal and Operational Insight

Before joining Shartsis Frieese, Rob served as President and COO of a single-family office, overseeing investments in early and growth-stage companies. He previously served as Associate General Counsel at a prominent investment firm and practiced in the M&A and Capital Markets groups at A&O Shearman LLP and Paul Hastings LLP. Earlier in his career, Rob served as a U.S. Army Military Intelligence officer, experience that informs his disciplined, strategic and solutions-oriented approach to client service.
